POST SEASON

MEDIA GUIDE

ELIGIBILITY OF PLAYERS

Eligibility provisions for the Division Series and LCS generally follow MLR 40 (World Series Eligibility). To be eligible, a player must be a bona fide member of a qualifying team on, and succeeding, midnight August 31, of the year in which the Series is played. Ineligible or Voluntary Retired List players must have been re-instated prior to midnight August 31, to be eligible. Disabled List, Suspended List or Military List players re-instated AFTER August 31, may be made eligible.

If any player is unable to render service because of a specific injury or ailment, on request of the participating team, the Commissioner may approve a substitute. A pitcher may be replaced only by a pitcher, a non-pitcher only by a non-pitcher. Substitutes must have been with a team's minor league affiliate before August 31.

The Eligibility List of the Division Series, LCS and World Series may be altered at the close of one Series and prior to the commencement of the next Series, providing all players are eligible under the Major League Rules and providing the change is approved by the Commissioner.

UMPIRE ROTATION FOR POST-SEASON

The six-man umpiring crew working post-season games will rotate in the following manner; right field to left field; left field to third base; third base to second base; second base to first base; first base to home plate.

THIS DATE IN AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES HISTORY

OCTOBER 8

1972...Oakland's Campy Campaneris was suspended by A.L. President Joe Cronin for the remainder of the series for throwing his bat at Detroit pitcher Lerrin LaGrow, who hit him with a pitch in Game 2 at the Oakland Coliseum. Campaneris, who had three singles, two runs scored, and two stolen bases before being ejected in the seventh, was also suspended for the first seven games of the 1973 season by the Commissioner's Office.

1974...Baltimore ace Jim Palmer hurled a four-hitter, but one of those hits was a solo home run by Oakland third baseman Sal Bando, while Vida Blue allowed only two hits and did not yield a single run, as the A's edged the O's, 1-0, in a dramatic Game 3 pitching duel.

OCTOBER 9

1977...The New York Yankees scored three runs in the ninth inning after trailing by three runs as late as the seventh for a 5-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals in Game 5 at Royals Stadium. It was the second straight pennant for the Yanks in a game that will be remembered for the slugging match that occurred at third base between KC.'s George Brett and Yankee third baseman Graig Nettles.

1988...The Oakland Athletics, led by the "Bash Brothers," wrapped up a four-game sweep of the Boston Red Sox with a 4-1 victory at the Coliseum in a series in which the A's out-hit the Sox 41-6, out-homered them 7-2, and compiled a team batting average of .299.

1996...The New York Yankees won Game 1 against the Baltimore Orioles as Bernie Williams hit a home run in the bottom of the 11th inning. Mariano Rivera worked the final two innings for the win.

OCTOBER 10

1972...Detroit's Joe Coleman struck out 14 Athletics hitters over nine innings to tie Jim Palmer's ALCS single-game record of 14 set in 1970 against Minnesota. Detroit won the game, 3-0, to force a fourth game for the first time in ALCS history.

1982...The Milwaukee Brewers defeated the California Angels, 4-3, in Game 5 at County Stadium to become the first team ever to win the best-of-five ALCS after falling behind two game to none. In years past, 15 teams had dropped the first two games, and none had gone on to the World Series.

1990...Boston ace Roger Clemens was ejected from the mound by A.L. umpire Terry Cooney for making obscene remarks about ball-and-strike calls in the second inning of Game 4 against the Oakland Athletics. The Athletics went on to win the game, 3-1, and they swept the series. Clemens was suspended by A.L. President Bobby Brown, for five games of the 1991 season.

2000...Four Seattle pitchers combined on a six-hit shutout as the Mariners defeated the Yankees, 2-0, in Game 1. The two teams struck out a combined 22 times, setting a new ALCS record.

OCTOBER 11

1985...Kansas City's George Brett went 4-for-4 with two homers to lead the Royals to a 6-5 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays in Game 3 at Royals Stadium. The victory snapped a 10-game post-season losing streak for the Royals (dating back to the 1980 World Series) who had already dropped two games in Toronto in the first best-of-seven series in League Championship history.

1991...Pinch hitter Mike Pagliarulo's solo home run with one out in the 10th inning helped Minnesota slide past Toronto, 3-2, at SkyDome. With the victory, the Twins took a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven series.

1992...Toronto rallied from a 6-1 deficit to defeat Oakland, 7-6, in 11 innings. In the eighth inning the Jays scored three runs and tied an ALCS record by getting five straight hits. Roberto Alomar hit a two-run home run off Dennis Eckersley in the top of the ninth to send the game into extra innings. Rookie Derek Bell scored the winning run on a sacrifice fly by Pat Borders. Daune Ward worked the ninth and tenth to pick up the win and Tom Henke worked the eleventh for his third save of the series.

1995...Manny Ramirez, in a Cleveland 5-2 victory over Seattle, became the first Indians player to hit two homers in a post-season game. He also became the first player to hit two homers in an ALCS game since Rickey Henderson did so in 1989 vs. Toronto.

2003...Roger Clemens faced Pedro Martinez in Game 3 at Fenway Park, pitching the Yankees to a 4-3 victory and a 2-1 lead in the series.

1997...The Indians advanced to their second World Series in three years as Tony Fernandez homered in the 11th inning for the only run of the ballgame. Mike Mussina of the Orioles struck out 10 in the losing effort and set a new record with 25 strikeouts in the series.

OCTOBER 16

1995...The Indians won the American League pennant for the first time since 1954 by beating the Seattle Mariners 4-0 in the decisive Game Six. Orel Hershiser, the winning pitcher of Games Two and Five, was named Most Valuable Player of the ALCS.
